

Call For Artists

Paradise on the Prairie Art & Photography Show & Silent Auction

Type of Art: painting, drawing, photography & other 2-D art; sculpture; pottery; weaving and fabric art; wood carving; antique art or photos, etc.

Theme: The show/auction will be part of the Harlan White Pelican Homecoming Celebration, so a nature or wildlife subject would be appropriate, but the theme is open and all subjects are eligible and welcome.

Terms: The show is both a non-profit fundraiser and a showcase for artists, with an 80/20 split of the final sale price in the artist/owner's favor. The artist (or current owner of the piece) will set the minimum bid for the silent auction. No entry fee. One "Show Only" piece will be allowed (not required) per participating artist.

Deadline for Submission of Entry Form: March 1, 2012

Deadline to Deliver Art: March 19, 2012 (pick-up or late delivery can be arranged in some circumstances)

Open Dates of Show: March 23-31, 2011; Johnson Center, 509 Main St., Alma, Nebraska

Silent Auction Closes: March 30, 2012; 6:00 p.m.; Reception following at Nelsen's Landing, North Shore

Late Sales: Pieces not sold on auction may be sold on Mar 31 for no less than the minimum bid, unless artist specifies no late sales. Artist must retrieve unsold work on Mar. 30 or 31 unless hold arrangements have been made with the sponsor.

Payment to Artists: To be processed within 10 days of close

Sponsor: Harlan County Arts Council & Tourism Office

Contact & Art Delivery Location: Pat Underwood, underwoodpat@ymail.com; 311 Main St., Alma, NE 68920; 800-762-5498
